Raleigh, Friday, March 13, 1868.

Democratic Address of the West Virginia Convention.

To the People of West Virginia:

We invite your attention to a review of the general political situation, its evils, and their remedy. Since 1861 the harmony of this nation has been sadly disturbed. For four years of the intervening time, the interruption of peaceful relations was due to a state of war. The practical disunion existing since 1865 is referable to a course of Congressional action, wicked in motive, illegal in character, and ruinous in result. While the war for the Union was in progress, its successful issue was anticipated as the guaranty of prompt reunion and permanent peace. Such a consummation was the aim of patriotic efforts in the field, the object of solemn pledges in the halls of Congress, and the confident expectation of the masses of the people. The war has long since ended. The rebellion has long since been crushed. Every obstacle placed by Southern movement in the way of the nation's unity has long since been removed. Nevertheless, disappointment waits upon the people's wish. The pledges of Congress have been repudiated. The triumphs of our armies have been neutralized, and the purposes of the brave men who secured them have been shamefully defeated. A dissolution more disastrous than that now existing between the Southern States and the Federal government could scarcely have been brought about by the success of the rebellion. A condition of affairs so much at variance with the wishes and interest of the people of our entire country demands a reference to the acts and aims of those who produce it.

CONGRESSIONAL RECONSTRUCTION.

For more than two years the Southern States have desired to renew their old relations to the government. Congress has constantly prevented that resumption. They are entitled to be restored upon the basis of the federal constitution. Congress has confessedly thrown aside that instrument, and obstructed restoration with terms and conditions of its own prescribing. Affecting to desire the perpetuity of the Republic, it has made a deadly assault upon republican institutions. Professing to aim at the salvation of the Union, it has wrought the destruction of ten of the States. The right of each State to regulate its own internal affairs, enfranchise its own voters, and choose its own rulers and law-makers, is as sacred as our constitution, and as indestructible as our government. Without it republican liberty is worthless, for when the people cease to be free citizens of the States they become the subjects of unlimited and irresponsible federal power. When Congress abolished the local government of the South, it violated a vital principle in our system. When it erected military establishments in their stead, it introduced the most abominable features of despotism. In further pursuance of its purposes, Congress has thrown the political power of the South into negro hands. To assure this result, it has disfranchised the white population by hundreds of thousands. Enfranchising the blacks, it has made voters of the ignorant, vicious and the brutal; legislators of those who regard liberty as license, and law as the instrument of revenge; and rulers of a class whose ideas of government, like their notions of religion, tend directly and inevitably to barbarism.

MILITARY GOVERNMENT AND ITS RESULTS.

Having given the negro the right to vote and the power to rule, Congress confesses his incompetency for either by insisting that the bayonet of the soldier, the disfranchisement of the citizen, and the supervision of the Freedmen's Bureau are necessary to sustain him in his new relations. By such declarations the dominant party would justify the continuance of military despotism erected within the Southern States. Before we sanction this iniquity, let us examine its results. It found civil governments in successful operation: it abolished those governments, and made the will of brigadier generals supreme for all purposes. Southern elections are ordered, supervised and approved or set aside by district commanders. Southern justice is what the bayonet may provide. Southern law is what the sword may decree. Southern peace is the patient submission of a conquered people; a peace threatened by impending negro insurrections, which white seditionists are inciting, and liable at any moment to disappear before the terrible tumult of social anarchy. The military government found business reviving, and enterprise struggling to repair the ravages of the war. They abolished labor, and offered army rations as a premium on negro idleness. The country ceased to produce, and trade and commerce with other sections perished. Capital left a land which promised soon to be given over to confiscation. General poverty followed the encouraged indolence of the laboring classes. Actual and almost universal destitution exists among the people; the unhappy victims of Congressional cruelty must become pensioners upon national charity or perish from starvation. Hordes of thriftless and discontented negroes, passionate almost to brutality, induced to vice by idleness, incited to violence by evil counsellors, fed and pampered at the public cost, with a great army for their protection, roam at will throughout the land upon a mission of evil, carrying dismay to the hearts of helplessness and innocence, and shocking civilization with the worst of nameless crimes. Such is the condition of the South. A military despotism is over her people. The hand of lawless violence threatens them. Desolation reigns on every hand. About them are the graves of their countless dead. The past is strewn with the wreck of their greatness. Present suffering surrounds them. Their future is thick with peril and dark with gathering misfortune. The foes of the nation are at her feet. Broken in spirit, stripped of fortune, wasted, ragged, wretched and ruined, their situation invokes the magnanimity of kindred manhood and appeals to the generous mercy of a noble enemy.

DISTRESS AT THE SOUTH PRODUCES PROSTRATION AT THE NORTH.

The evil influence of bayonet reconstruction is not confined to the South. The entire country feels it. Northern factories are silent because Southern pockets are empty. Western granaries and storehouses are full, but poverty possesses their ancient market, and their former buyers are now begging bread. A commercial crash is imminent and business stands still and trembles at the prospect. The manufacturing interests of the nation are crippled and almost crushed. The spindle is motionless; the shuttle is silent; the forge and the furnace are deserted; the workshop is vacant; the mill is closed. The hands of the artisan are unemployed and empty; his children are starving, homeless and in rags. The impoverishment of the South throws the entire burden of taxation upon the North and West. The Southern States can render no assistance while the government grinds them with an iron heel. If their people shared its benefits they would be impelled to productive ability. As they partake only of its severities, they could not support it if they would, and so long as it oppresses them, if they are fit to be freedmen, they will not support it if they could.

AS TO THE CONGRESSIONAL PURPOSE.

The declarations of leading Republicans in Congress leave no room to doubt that the action of that body has been taken with reference to the unity of the Radical party, rather than the unity of the American Republic. The National Legislature has become a mere machine for the manufacture of radical majorities. Its material is the worst and lowest class of humanity, barely rescued from the brutality of the savage state by contact with civilization. A system which is based upon negro stupidity, supported by bayonets and designed to secure partisan triumphs through the enslavement of men of our own race, may be instituted here through force and fraud, but if it can endure in this land the American people have learned liberty to no purpose and well deserve to be taught its value under the stern tutelage of tyranny which awaits them in the future of radical supremacy.

FINANCIAL AFFAIRS.

In its management of our financial affairs, the dominant party has enacted the grossest folly and injustice. Repeated contractions of the currency have caused incalculable commercial disasters. A still more dangerous measure of contraction is now proposed in the Senate, by which the legal tenders are to be withdrawn from circulation and replaced by interest bearing bonds. If property and business do not enter an effective protest, the results will be little short of general ruin.

THE NATIONAL DEBT.

The national debt amounts to $2,500,000,000. It cost the holders $1,250,000,000. The party in power would pay it in gold, dollar for dollar. They would give to the bondholders a currency different from and better than that used by the people. Specie for the money lenders and paper for the masses is the end of their financial policy. A discrimination so palpable and unfair is an insult to the popular sense of justice. By the terms of the act of issue, greenbacks are made legal tender for all debts, public and private, except duties on imports and interest on the public debt. Even the soldiers of the Republic accepted paper as the price of their toils and hardships. Is the patriotism of cash more valuable than the public devotion, which fights and bleeds, and dies? Labor receives its wages in paper; the products of the farm, the goods of the merchant, professional fees, all prices and values among the people, are paid in paper. If that kind of money is good for the masses, good to buy all things, from the sweat of labor to the blood of valor, why should it not suffice for the redemption of the Federal securities?

EXEMPTION OF THE BONDS.

Under Radical management, the bonds are exempt from taxation. Receiving from the government the same protection with their property, they pay not a dollar to its support. Such exclusive privilege establishes an aristocracy of money in the midst of a Republic of labor. Toil is taxed; bonds are exempt. Toil produces; bonds consume. Toil builds our public improvements; bondholders enjoy their benefits at no cost. Toil supports our courts, pays our legislators, and defrays the general expenses of the government; bondholders partake of the blessings of all and contribute to the sustenance of none. A policy which makes labor so completely tributary to capital is anti-republican in its effect upon the masses. We greatly mistake the temper of the people if they do not demand that this wrong be promptly righted by such repeals and enactments as will compel all property alike to share the burdens of taxation.

THE REVENUE SYSTEM.

Radicalism derives the bulk of the Federal revenue from home productions and the necessaries of life. Over sixteen thousand articles, including almost everything that supports life or lightens labor, are now the subjects of taxation. Hence the great disparity between wages and the cost of living. Frauds upon the revenue are another characteristic of the present system. The laws are evaded, the officers are bribed; the country is robbed. Over one hundred millions of dollars were lost last year through downright villainy, and the deficiencies of wealthy knaves must be made good by toiling honesty.

WHERE THE MONEY GOES.

A large portion of the taxes now raised is applied to worse than useless purposes. The Freedmen's Bureau costs twelve millions annually, a sum equal to the entire yearly expense of the government under some of the earlier administrations. That institution feeds, clothes and supports a host of malignant Southern haters, negro fanatics and greedy adventurers, backed by the federal army. It has done more to breed bitterness and discontent among the Southern people than the war itself. The military establishments at the South are another kind of useless and extravagant expenditure. It is costing from sixty to one hundred millions annually.—High Radical authority estimates that it will take ten years to reconstruct the South by the present process. The lowest possible amount for which this partisan enterprise can be completed will be eight hundred millions of dollars. Are the people of this nation to be impoverished, in order that the days of niggerism and fanaticism may be long in the land? Are the masses of the country to be mercilessly taxed, robbed and ruined, in order that corruption may prosper, love of power be satisfied, and the supremacy of Radicalism be assured? We look for such a response to these questions as will wipe out the abominations of the bayonet, restore civil and constitutional governments to the South, exclude the African element from the sphere of politics, and re-establish the American Union upon the ancient foundations of equal justice and popular affection.

A REMEDY POSSIBLE.

Let us recur to the remedy for the manifold wrongs to which we have referred. The reconstruction question, whatever difficulties it may present to bitter partisans, is capable of a safe and easy adjustment through the exercise of an honest and liberal patriotism. The simple application of the principles of the Federal Constitution will remove every obstacle and effect a peaceful, permanent, and satisfactory settlement. If that instrument possesses the perfection with which every lover of his country invests it, it will not be found wanting at the critical juncture. The Constitution which has blessed the people with liberty and crowned this land with greatness will not now prove inadequate to the designs of its authority and leave the vital interests of the Union at the mercy of rude chances and political passions. Let its provisions be applied, and representatives of the South, elected by the only qualified voters of that section, will take their seats in Congress, subject only to the condition imposed upon members from other parts of the land; the natural relations between the Southern States and the General Government will be resumed, and the Union of the States, triumphantly restored, will return in form, in fact, and freedom to the original glory of her first and best estate. The restoration of the South will open the way to great financial relief. When her people are relieved of the domination of the bayonets and the blacks, they will be encouraged to productive pursuits; general prosperity will revive their palsied energies, and their assistance will be happily felt in removing the great burden of debt which now impedes the national progress. The costly national nuisance, the Freedmen's Bureau, will be abolished, and common sense having mastered the situation will decree that negroes, like white men, must either work or starve. The expensive Southern military establishment will be acknowledged unnecessary, and with their disappearance tax-payers will thank God and take courage. A fair taxation of the Federal securities will yield many millions of revenue. The national banks suggest another opportunity of retrenchment. They own between three and four hundred millions in Federal bonds, upon which they draw interest. These bonds are deposited with the Government, and for every $100,000 so deposited, they receive $90,000 in national bank notes. These notes constitute their circulation, and with them they carry on the business, and earn the profits of banking proper. The interest accruing on their deposited bonds is so much premium paid them, in addition to the regular earnings of their business. They receive the benefit of just ninety per cent. more capital than they have invested, and this gratuitous premium comes from the pockets of the people. Justice requires that this sum, amounting to between twenty and thirty millions annually, be saved to the public. The simple process of recalling the national bank notes and substituting for the bonds legal tenders as banking currency will effect the needed result, and another sinkhole for the earnings of laborers will be effectually stopped. In the matter of revenue, fewer articles could be taxed, and through a more perfect and more honest mode of assessment and collection, much larger returns could be realized. Congressional extravagance and corruption should be reformed. Investigating committees should be abolished. Land grants and railroad swindles should be abandoned. The Indian wars, like the last, should be avoided. Territorial purchases should be suspended. Countless other modes of waste and fraud could be corrected, and a portion of the savings set aside for the final redemption of the debt. A sinking fund for this purpose, made up of bond taxation, the premium paid the national banks and the money wasted in Africanizing the South, would redeem every dollar of the debt in less than twenty years. The way to this desired end could be opened by the substitution of legal tenders for the bonds as rapidly as may be consistent with safety. Millions now paid in interest would thus be economized, and, with the aid of a restored and producing South, the end of our financial troubles would speedily approach.

CONCLUSION.

Having thus attempted to set forth your wrongs, and the possibility of a remedy, we now appeal to you to work out the needed reformation. Whatever evils may result from bad government, the people are the sufferers. Whatever reforms are effected must be brought about by and through the people themselves. The people have it in their power to remove the giant iniquities whose shadows darken the land. They have but to speak, and the enemies of their peace would be powerless, the dignity of the constitution and the laws will be vindicated, and their now imperilled country rescued from impending danger, purified and strengthened by its trials, will resume its majestic march in the paths of greatness, happiness and freedom. A movement has been inaugurated in this city for the organization of the friends of law and order and honest government, as against the forces of Radicalism in West Virginia. The movement will extend to every county; it will find co-operation in every township and school district in the State. We invite and urge you to join hands in the great work of political redemption.

Other States have taken the lead and are already enjoying the first fruits of victory. From Connecticut to California, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, the people have interchanged the tidings of deliverance, and both oceans have heard their wild shout of gladness and triumph. The Central States of Ohio and Pennsylvania have responded with glorious deeds that yet thrill the nation. The Empire State has arisen with a mighty proclamation for the right, and the manifestation of her power, like the restless march of a conquering host, points out the path of destiny and bids the nation follow. Already we hear the footsteps of approaching political revolution. It is advancing with an energy that gives assurance of its triumphant progress even unto the end.—Let the people of Virginia fall in with the hosts that move to the rescue of our government and its institutions. While others are fighting and triumphing, let them, too, participate in the struggle and contribute to the result. We invoke your aid in your own behalf, in behalf of good government, and the attendant blessings of justice, liberty and progress. Unite for the restoration of your lost prosperity. Labor for the overthrow of organized fanaticism, corruption and folly. Act, act, act for the sake of peace, Union, freedom and humanity.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a chairman and thirty members—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The committee shall have power to maintain its organization by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registrations, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organization, appoints a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

PLATFORM.

The Conservative people of North Carolina, having by their delegates assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty, and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States, and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments are equal and co-ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people, of the Reconstruction Acts, and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal affairs.

3. Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Convention that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper measure within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudicies against that race, that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder in the last resort of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact as established by law in the earlier and better days of the republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats, and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States, and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union, on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates for the State at large, to represent the conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, hereafter to be appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered, and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said office.

WM. A. HEARNE, JNO. W. DUNHAM,
EDITORS.

Raleigh, Friday, March 13, 1868.

THE White Man in North Carolina, who votes for the constitution which the Reconstruction Convention is framing, votes

For the civil, political and social equality of the negro; for a constitution, which gives to an inferior race all the rights and privileges of the superior, among them the privilege of the ballot and the right to hold office.

He votes for a constitution which abolishes the laws and customs which North Carolinians have learned to love and revere.

He votes for a constitution which compels white men and negroes to belong to the same companies and regiments in the militia; and which, in counties where the negroes largely preponderate, allows them to be elected officers of the said companies and regiments with power to punish for disobedience of orders.

He votes for a Constitution which permits his child to be made the servant of a negro by apprenticeship; and, which allows a negro to be appointed the guardian of white wards.

He votes for a Constitution which allows the intermarriage of whites and blacks; and, thus, threatens the destruction of the vigor and purity of his race, destroys morals and hinders the prosperity of the State.

He votes for a Constitution which authorizes the Legislature to compel the attendance of the children of the State at school for a certain number of years; and which compels him to send his children to the same school with those of negroes, or else deprives him of all benefit from them, while he is taxed to support them.

He votes for a Constitution which creates new and unnecessary offices, for the promotion of party purposes; and increases the onerous taxes of an impoverished and debt-ridden people to pay the salaries of wandering Yankees and renegade Southern men, who hope to fill them.

These are some of the things which every North Carolinian, who votes for the Constitution, thereby sanctions.

We ask every white man to ponder them; and as he regards his wife and children, as he cares for their welfare and values their happiness, to ask himself if he can so far forget his manhood and his honor, as to give his endorsement to measures so fraught with danger and disgrace.

CONTRARY to our hopes, but not to our expectations, the election in New Hampshire has resulted in a triumph of the Republican party. The majority is somewhat less than that by which they carried the State last year.

The success of the party of moral ideas in the Granite State will operate disadvantageously upon every industrial interest of the country, by giving impetus and strength to the movement for the deposition of the President.

The canvass was earnest and thorough and the victory has been dearly won. Much money was expended by both parties, but the Democrats had a succession of victories for fifteen years to contend against, the Radicals having carried the State steadily since 1853.

The next State election is that of Connecticut, which occurs on the first Monday of April next. We confidently expect that we shall have then the pleasure of chronicling a complete Democratic victory.

THE Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette writes to that paper that a movement is developing for the nomination of Chief Justice Chase as the Democratic candidate for the Presidency. The reasons assigned by those managing the matter are, that Mr. Chase was a Democrat originally, and seceded from his party upon the question of the abolition of slavery. That question being settled, they argue that there are no points of difference between him and his former party associates.

The same paper states that the Radicals distrust him as the presiding officer of the Impeachment Court, fearing that he will somehow prevent the consummation of their purposes.

It is learned from members of the committee, who have examined the startling charges made by Gen. Logan against the Treasury Department, that the facts and circumstances do not sustain the charges.

THE presentation of the report of the Committee on Political Disabilities, yesterday, evoked a bitter and spirited debate in the Convention. The committee reported a list of names of persons, to be recommended to the clemency of Congress, because of their approved loyalty as evinced by their support of the several acts of reconstruction. None others were deemed worthy of consideration. The character of the report will hardly surprise those who know the body to which it was offered. Indeed, it was just such a report as was to have been expected from a committee to a convention in which virtue is a crime and decency a disgrace. It was foully and infamously unjust and partizan, and deserved the sternest rebuke and denunciation. We are glad to say that it got them.

Capt. Durham delivered, upon the report, a powerful philippic, exposing the enormity of the injustice done to the good people of the State, by the discriminations made by the Committee. He charged its authors with cowardice, in fearing to submit their work to the decision of the whole people of the State, and eloquently defended the virtuous and intelligent class of our citizens under the ban of political disfrachisement from the accusation of disloyalty.

Messrs. Hodnett, Bradley and Holt opposed the reception of the report in earnest, practical speeches, creditable to their good sense and generosity.

An amendment offered by Dr. Baker, of Edgecombe, requesting Congress to remove the disabilities of all disfranchised persons, was clogged by an amendment which compelled the delegate himself to vote for its rejection.

Subsequently Mr. Rodman introduced a resolution of the same character, which was defeated, after a demand for the ayes and nays made by Mr. Durham had been refused.

It is not at all consistent with Radical ideas of justice, to do aught for those citizens whose judgment and honor compel them to vote against this Constitution; but every man, who will forswear his race and make merchandise of his honor, is cheerfully commended to the favor of a most gracious Congress.

The editor of the Washington Chronicle is a most pitiably unfortunate individual. He is constantly haunted by visions of bloodshed. They disturb his slumbers, destroy his usefulness and depress his courage. Some months since he was greatly alarmed by a threatened invasion of Washington by a most terrible set of fellows, known as the Maryland militia. Scarcely had the fears excited by them subsided, before his nerves were again unsettled by the nitro-glycerine telegram of Superintendent Kennedy, of New York.

But there is a greater danger still and a nearer one. Mosby has "rebelled" again, says the Chronicle, and with four hundred armed men is preparing for a decent upon the capital of the nation.—The President is a party to this last, most dangerous conspiracy against the peace of mind of the courageous and veracious editor "of my two papers, both daily. He has received intelligence of this tremendous gathering of the clans and has grown bold and defiant in consequence. And then, too, an increased number of Southerners have registered at the hotels of the city, gone there, doubtless, to assist in the destruction of the government.

We shall expect to-day interesting and startling intelligence to the effect that the Chronicle office is strongly fortified and that Gen. Grant has taken up his hedquarters therein for the protection of his friend.

Seriously, these sensation reports of the Chronicle are simple falsehoods, and can only excite the ridicule of decent men.

THE Senate of the United States is to be put to a fearful test. We do not hesitate to say that there is not a lawyer of decent attainments in his profession throughout the land, who does not know the charges preferred by the House of Representatives to be utterly insufficient to justify the conviction of the President. His fate, then, depends upon the honor and the patriotism of the Senate, and he who speculates as to the result of the trial, need only ask himself whether the Senate of the United States has that stern old Roman virtue which subordinates party triumph to public weal and to justice. That question being answered he has the solution of the impeachment trial.

THE Hon. Wm. A. Graham gave happy expression to a truth, which we had nearly forgotten, when he charged his hearers in Orange, on Tuesday, to remember that the OLD CONSTITUTION OF NORTH CAROLINA WAS A CANDIDATE FOR THEIR SUFFRAGE IN THE APPROACHING ELECTION.

What true son of the good old State (may God grant her speedy deliverance from her foes!) can hesitate between the constitution framed by her giant sons, and the miserable abortion hatched in the brains of Yankee pie peddlers and teachers of negro schools?

THE CAPITOL MONKEY SHOW.

(BY OUR SPECIAL REPORTER UNDER THE TABLE.)

[The reader is particularly requested to remember the fact that no Reporter for this paper is allowed on the floor, in the halls or in the galleries of the Convention, and consequently our reports are made from under the table, behind the scenes, or as may be otherwise ordered and convenient.]

FIFTIETH DAY.

EVENING ENTERTAINMENT.

WEDNESDAY, March 11.

The performance commenced at 7½ o'clock.

The special order, "Rodman's Ready Relief," was taken up and read.

Its inventor arose and urged its passage; and, having a just appreciation of the dullness of comprehension of the larger portion of his fellow-delegates, in order that they might understand it more fully, explained each particular ingredient of the delectable compound—section by section.

The Sweet young man who hails from Craven, thought it a "good thing," and thought it would afford the people great relief; and in his humble opinion, did not believe it contained the slightest taint of the drug of repudiation.

King, the representative of "his class" in Lenoir, "could'nt swaller it," and thought it nothing else but repudiation, and one of the most obnoxious compounds ever concocted—both unjust and unconstitutional.

Abbott, the Shaker, by con-scent, introduced a resolution authorizing the Manager to appoint the Sweet-scented cuss from Craven, a committee of one to proceed to Charleston to confer with King Canby, in regard to the approaching election, the manner in which his Highness desired it to be conducted, &c.

The rules were suspended, and the resolution was adopted.

The question of Rodman's Ready Relief was resumed; and French, the whilom sutler, with his big feet, occupied the floor, and spoke in opposition to the ordinance.

Mr. Pool offered as a substitute, an ordinance entitled an "ordinance to prevent the sacrifice of property of debtors," introduced by himself some time ago. Mr. Pool expatiated at some length, thought Rodman's Ready Relief tinctured with repudiation, and totally unconstitutional, and the idea of having it voted upon separately from the constitution superlatively ridiculous.

While Mr. Pool had the floor, something aroused the ire of the superannuated old greaser, Hobbs. He broke from his cage and evidently had a slight attack of hydrophobia, said that nobody could git a chance to say a word but would-be judges and candidates. If they wanted to speak, let them go out and stump the State. He had sot and sot, waiting for a chance until he was tired, and had enough of such "tom-foolery" here.

Mr. Pool endeavored to proceed with his remarks, but the old fossillated greaser would not let him, and ordered him to take his seat.

The Manager tried to coax him into his cage again, and called him to order, but the inexorable Hobbs wouldn't come.

The Manager thereupon called upon the sergeant-at-arms. Hobbs grew perfectly unmanageable, and swore that if the sergeant-at-arms laid his hands on him he would throw him out the window; but after cavorting about awhile, he was finally quieted, and induced to re-euter his cage.

After quiet was restored, the question recurred upon Mr. Pool's ordinance, as a substitute for the one offered by Mr. Rodman.

The ayes and noes being called, the vote stood, ayes 36, nays 44.

The question then recurred upon the adoption of the ordinance of Mr. Rodman.

The ayes and noes were called, and resulted in the following vote:

AYES—Messrs. Abbott, Aydlott, Blume, Chillson, Etheridge, French, of Chowan, Glover, Gunter, Harris, of Franklin, Hay, Laflin, Long, Mayo, negro, Marshall, Merritt, McDonald, of Moore, Moore, Nance, Newsom, Patrick, Ragland, Read, Rich, Rodman, Sanderlin, Stilley, Stillwell, Sweet, Turner, Welker, Williamson, negro.

NOES—Messrs. Andrews, Barnes, Benbow, Bryan, Bradley, Carey, negro, Colgrove, Congleton, Cox, Duckworth, Ellis, Eppes, negro, Forkner, French of Bladen, French of Rockingham, Fullings, Gahagan, George, Grant of Northampton, Hayes of Robeson, Hobbs, Hollowell, Ing, Jones, of Washington, King of Lincoln, King of Lenoir, Kinney, Logan, McCubbins, Morton, Mullican, Nicholson, Parker, Parks, Petree, Pool, Ray, Renfrow, Rhodes, Robbins, negro, Rose, Teague, Trogdon, Tucker, Hall.

The performance then closed.

Report of the Standing Committee on Miscellaneous Provisions.

SEC. 9. The General Assembly shall provide by law for the indictment and trial of persons charged with the commission of any felony in any county other than that in which the offence was committed, whenever, owing to prejudice, or any other cause, an impartial grand or petit jury cannot be impanneled in the county in which such offence was committed.

BYRON LAFLIN, Ch'm'n.

Major General Hancock.

All doubt as to the position of Gen. Hancock may be dismissed. There is no question that he has asked to be relieved from the command of the Fifth Military Districts, in consequence of the unreasonable interference of General Grant, especially in regard to the restoration of nine members of the New Orleans City Council, (two whites and seven colored,) whom General Hancock had removed for disobedience and contempt of orders made by General Sheridan and General Mower, his predecessors in the command.

The request of General Hancock is dated February 27th. While it is apparent that an indignity has been offered to him purposely to induce him to resign his position, and an order transmitted to him requiring him to revoke his orders issued in accordance with those made by his predecessors—Generals Sheridan and Mower—and approved by General Grant himself, the facts are all before the country, and the action of General Hancock is sustained by the opinion of the whole people. His sensitive nature as an honorable soldier would naturally suggest to him the request to be relieved from an onerous and disagreeable duty, in the discharge of which he is liable to such assaults from the petty politicians, who are the conscience keepers of General Grant, but his duties as an officer and a patriot are to hold on while the people need him where he is, and await orders from his proper commander-in-chief, however distateful for the moment may be his position. We hope he will not be induced to abandon the great trust reposed in him.—Nat. Int.

A Whisky War in Tennessee.

A dispatch from Knoxville, Tenn., says:—A few days since it was announced that three men had been killed by the illicit distillers in Claiborne county. The murdered men were assisting the revenue officers in the seizure of illicit distilleries, and were killed by the rioters, who made the attempt to rescue the property seized. Subsequently Collector Abernethy, accompanied by Marshal Lask and a company of cavalry, left for the scene of the disturbance, for the purpose of dispersing the rioters, arresting the distillers and seizing the stills.

We now have the report that in another fracas which has taken place two of the soldiers have been killed. This is the same locality in which the whisky men captured the collector and his assistants, and held them in custody until they paid several hundred dollars ransom. They are determined to pay no revenue, and say they will forcibly resist any force sent to seize their stills and stock.

Forecasting the Future.

In the speech delivered in the Senate on the 7th February, 1839, by Henry Clay, he predicted civil war and the subversion of the Union as the consequence of the abolition agitation and excitement. His conclusion was as follows:

I am, Mr. President, no friend of slavery, * * * but I prefer the liberty of my own country to that of any other people, and the liberty of my own race to that of any other race. The liberty of the descendants of Africa in the United States, * * * if it were possible, could only be established by violating the incontestible powers of the States, and subverting the Union. And beneath the ruins of the Union would be buried, sooner or later, the liberty of both races.

It is now decided beyond a doubt that deaf mutes can be taught to articulate. How this decision must gladden the hearts of parents who have believed their poor unfortunate children forever silent! "Can it be true," they say, "that our little ones will speak to us; that we shall hear their voices?" Yes, it is true and the fact has been freely demonstrated in the town of Ledyard, Connecticut.

A writer in the Norwich (Conn.) Bulletin, says:

Jonathan Whipple, who was the first in Connecticut to discover this wonderful truth, was led to the dicovery through his own child, who was born a deaf mute. By great patience and persevereance his son was brought into the world of language, and taught to understand by the motion of the lips, and now articulates more distinctly than many whose hearing is perfect.

There have been two young men under his instruction, neither of whom had uttered an articulate sound until they commenced their study with him; and although they were with him but a few months, on account of pecuniary circumstances, yet when they left they could plainly speak the name of nearly every object under their observation, and many abstract words.

If those who have lived in silence eighteen and twenty years can be taught to articulate what may we not expect of children who early commence the study.

Parents, do not weep and sigh over your silent children when that silence can surely be broken up by articulation.

The New York Sun having kindly provided prospective President Wade with a Cabinet, undertakes next to relieve him of all trouble in his diplomatic appointments by making up the following diplomatic list:

England—General George H. Thomas.
France—Thomas J. Durant, La.
Prussia—James Speed, Ky.
Russia—Morton McMichael, Penn.
Spain—General Daniel E. Sickles, N. Y.
Austria—John Lothrop Motley, Mass.
Brazil—B. Gratz Brown, Mo.
China—Bayard Taylor, N. Y.
Mexico—John W. Forney, D. C.
Buenos Ayres—Wm. Bross, Ill.
Portugal—Samuel Bowles, Mass.
Belgium—M. Halestead, Ohio.
Holland—John Minor Botts, Va.
Central America—Charles James, Cal.
Hayti—Wendell Phillips, Mass.

One of the schemes for easing off the immense interest due on the United States debt is the following, which seems to meet with great favor: After a bond becomes due, the United States has a right to pay it whenever it pleases—in coin.—If then the rate of interest is six per cent., and the credit of the government is so good that it can borrow money at five, or less, it is proposed that it shall do so and pay the bond. The Treasury thus saves the difference between the rate of interest named in the bond and the rate at which it can borrow.

Those who have given special attention to questions of finance declare that the government will by this process of converson save forty millions per annum in interest, while at the same time it violates no obligation either expressed or implied.

At the last meeting of the conference of the Paris bar this question was discussed: "Can a person who directly aids another to commit suicide be indicted as an accomplice in an act of murder?" The point was decided in the negative. The moral guilt, however, of the assistant, need not be doubted.

NEWS AND MISCELLANY.

The Courier des Etats Unis informs its readers that its "sincere conviction is that the debt of the United States is destined to be repudiated at a time more or less remote." Perhaps the wish is father to the thought.

The New York Commercial concludes that: "We are drifting into repudiation! We are so drifting, not because our debt is too onerous, or that our people are dishonest, but because Congress is either insensible to the danger or indifferent to its consequences."

In a few weeks the thirty years will expire which Talleyrand stipulated in his will should elapse after his death before his memoirs were to be published. He died on the 17th of May, 1838.

In Philadelphia six women physicians return incomes ranging from $2,000 to $10,000 a year In Orange, New Jersey, there is another, whose annual income ranges between $10,000 and $15,000. In New York there is one whose income is rarely less than $20,000 a year. Some of these physicians are successful surgeons as well as capable medical practitioners.

Connecticut is said to be, in proportion to its population, the richest State in the Union; the average property of every inhabitant is over $900, which is about $100 higher than the average in the State next highest—Rhode Island.

The High Court of Impeachment for trial of the Radicals will sit next November.—Boston Post.

Two negroes were elected to office a day or two since in Nashville, Tenn., by the Radicals.

A report is in circulation that Mr. Stanbery has tendered his resignation as Attorney General in order to take part in the trial. The fact is that no resignation has been tendered, but Mr. Stanbery has made known that if his acting as counsel for Mr. Johnson shall be embarrassed on account of his position as Attorney General, he will resign the latter office rather than give up the defence of the President.

Mr. Evarts, of New York, and Mr. Nelson, of Tennessee, are to be of the counsel for the President in the impeachment case, in addition to those heretofore named.

OUR NOON DISPATCHES.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, March 12.

The Mississippi Levee and Railroad bill proposes to endorse the company's bonds, principal and interest, at $20,000 dollars per mile, the bonds to issue with the completion of each twenty miles. The stipulations are that the levee shall be located and constructed under the supervision of the Chief Engineer of the Federal army.

The impeachers manifest feverish anxiety—otherwise there is no excitement.

There are no indications of a veto of the bill requiring a simple majority of votes to ratify the Southern constitutions.

The Democrats argue that this majority bill will render Alabama's admission, under the recent election, doubly inexcusable.

Good News from the East

HOLDEN ON THE STUMP—MUCH WOOL BUT NO GATHERING.

SKIES BRIGHTENING—LENOIR ALL RIGHT

KINSTON, N. C., March 12.

Holden, the Radical Negro candidate for the office of Governor, and the lick-spittles Thomas Settle and C. R. Thomas, were here to-day and harangued a mass meeting (so-called) consisting of two hundred negroes and less than two dozen mean white men. Their speeches were vituperative and violent, teeming with abuse, falsehood and indecency. They were well calculated from their vindictive and incendiary character to kindle strife between the two races.

Holden appears terribly chop-fallen at the thin turn out at this place, and could not conceal his chagrine at the fact that not more than a dozen white men from the county came out to hear his great campaign speech.

Lenoir is all right and will, without fail, go largely for the White Man's party in the approaching election, though registering a majority of negro voters.

The Trial of Ex-President Davis.

RICHMOND, March 12.

The trial of Mr. Davis, which was to have taken place the 4th Wednesday in March, was postposed by the following proceedings in Judge Underwood's Court, this morning:

U. S. vs. Hon. Jefferson Davis:—Counsel having been heard in this cause for the United States and for the defendant, it is ordered that said defendant have leave to depart hence until the 14th day of April next at 11 o'clock, at which day and hour he is required to be here and appear personally before this court, according to the conditions of his recognizance.

JOHN C. UNDERWOOD,
District Judge.

SENATE.—A bill has been introduced allowing alcohol and rum, contracted for and manufactured before the passage of the act of January, 1868, to be exported if done within thirty days, on proper proof.

Sherman claimed that the bill would open the door to frauds.

The pension propositions were discussed, after which a short excutive session was held. After its termination, the Senate concurred in House amendment to the bill amending the Judiciary acts. The bill now goes to the President.

Adjourned.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, March 12.

Attorney General Stanberry's resignation has been accepted. He is to defend the President on the impeachment trial.

The bill making a majority of votes cast ratify the Southern State constitutions, and allowing registered persons to vote any where in their respective States after ten days residence, on certificate, affidavit or other evidence, is a law by the lapse of 10 days.

The Republican majority in New Hampshire is from 500 to 800. The total vote sums up 77,000. Each party carries five counties.

It is stated that Judge Chase is in favor of allowing the President twenty or thirty days to prepare for his case. He will insist on reasonable time for Mr. Johnson.

The impeachment managers are very busy taking evidence. Thirty additional Senate Doorkeepers are employed.

The Star says there is good reason for saying that no decision will be rendered in the McCardle case for two or three days. It is stated that, should the amendment to the Judiciary bill passed to-day become law, it will throw the matter out of court.

The Senate has confirmed Col. Lewis Walflev as Collector of Internal Revenue for 1st Louisiana district; Chas. Van Winkel, Marshal for Virginia; and T. W. Scott, Consul at Matamoras.

40 YEARS.

DEEMS' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pills, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.

There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to grow under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively they need no recommendation, their merits are well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has by right them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.

They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.

Price:—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. or the gross, $18. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D. Address

March 9th, 1868.

WE feel as sure of success in the coming campaign as if the figures were already written down in our favor.

IMMENSE gatherings of White Men are being held all over the State, the greatest enthusiasm everywhere prevails and public sentiment has settled down into the certainty of a Waterloo defeat for the Radical nigger party.

CITY AND STATE.

Mayor's Court.

The following cases were disposed of by His Honor, Mayor Haywood, yesterday:

Berton Lewis, colored, charged with damaging and injuring the State House, by removing copper from the roof. Returned to the Superior Court.

John W. Ragland and John Gallagher, charged with being engaged in an affray, on Fayetteville Street. Returned to the Superior Court.

"The Holden Record."

The first number of this campaign paper, Illustrating the mazy and amazing tergiversations of the political mountebank whose name it bears, is before us. Its typography is good, and its matter displays an abundance of curious research among the "archives of gravity." The editor has assumed a ponderous, and not otherwise inviting task. He says he "intends to make a map of Holden from his first appearance to the last act"—to give his "changes of base and of color"—and his "leaps from platform to platform"—"to paint, picture and describe him in every hue of the rainbow"—"with side glances, front views and broad-side views" to match. This spicy biography of the X. P. G. will doubtless command an extensive circulation.

On Dit.

A report is current that Barnum, the great showman, has been operating in this city through the Tourgee, with a view of replacing the gorilla who perished in the flames on the occasion of the destruction of his museum. If this be true, we have an explanation of the late adroit movement of Barnum's agent in the convention. Gorilla Kalvin Kowles' loyalty, as an unregistered animule, was brought into question by the Guilford import, with no other purpose than to force the fine-tooth comb parliamentarian to resign and find his level in another menagerie. It is the cleverest thing, considered in this view, that the Tourgee has done since the exhibition opened in Raleigh, though the work, (had he not failed) would have been incomplete without Cuffee Mayo (jet) and Galloway (ginger-bread hue) had also been ousted, cooped in well-proportioned barrels and shipped to Barnum. The trio would have gratified the curious and shown every variety of the species. Science, too, would ultimately have been advantaged, as, when they deceased, the problem whether or not they have brains and capacity to think, or are guided by instinct, might have received elucidation. Besides, medical investigation could possibly be carried so far as to determine what organic element changed Kalvin's color within the last few years. Ah, Tourgee's failure to succeed in the game of "dog eating dog," detracts from his ferociousness.

Prophetic.

Doesticks, in the following trochaic stanzas, seems to have written prophetically of the mean white men of the latter-day, so-called Constitutional Conventions, charged with the reconstruction of the Southern States, prior to their re-admission into the ga-lorious Union—so-called.—Philander Q. K. P. B. singeth thusly:

"You shall smaller grow and smaller,
In your minds and in your bodies,
You shall meaner grow and meaner,
Till your cringing, creeping, crawling
Forms are lost from earth forever,
Till your souls are all extinguished,
Nothing left to merit saving,—
Not enough to be worth damning!"

The following parties are announced as having filed petitions in bankruptcy since our last issue: Wm. A. Hayes, of Moore county; Allen W. Jones, of Moore; Archibald McLean, of Harnett; A. J. Simms, of Wilson; James H. Wood, of Wayne, Benj. H. Bardin, of Wilson.

A Scrimmage.

Out of tender regard for the feelings of Mr. Gallagher, we omitted to notice on yesterday, the fact that he had the serious misfortune of a personal collision with one of the meanest—mangiest—scurviest varmints that infest the filthy purlieus of Dan Kowles' Grand Moral Combination Circus and Menagerie. The varmint whom Mr. Gallagher encountered is a Granville contribution to the Museum. He is a monkey of the Gorilla species, whose imitative faculties, (naturally marvellous) were so wondously developed in early life that he is said to have become especially expert in counterfeiting his daddy's signature, to his daddy's prejudice. One thing, however, is somewhat remarkable, this gifted gorilla is easily angered by any—the remotest allusion to his singular dexterity in manufacturing other people's autographs for his own benefit. We learn that an unlucky animadversion, by Mr. Gallagher, upon the Gorilla's smartness in this partieular, awakened the animal's ire and caused him to make a fierce onslaught upon Mr. G., who, escaping from his claws, with a few scratches and bruises, bore off a handful or so of genuine Gorilla-wool, which subscribers to the Carolinian will be permitted to examine by calling at this office.

White Man's Club.

A White Man's Club for the county of Cumberland was organized at Fayetteville on the 4th. The following gentlemen were elected its officers: President—James C. Dobbin; Vice Presidents—Hon. T. C. Fuller, J. W. Strange, W. McL. McKay; Corresponding Secretary—J. W. Fuller; Recording Secretary—George M. Rose; Executive Committee—Hon. J. G. Shepherd and J. H. Myrover; Finance Committee—Col. H. McKethan, John D. Williams, Dr. W. C. McDuffie; Committee on Registration—Bart. Fuller, W. B. Wright, W. Draughon.

The Club was ably and eloquently addressed by the Hon. J. G. Shepherd.

We commend this plan of organization to all the other counties in the State.

The White Men of Rowan in Council.

The White Men of Rowan county met in Salisbury on the 7th, for the purpose of organization and for the appointment of delegates to the Congressional and District Conventions. Henry Barringer, Esq., presided. Messrs. A. J. Mason and P. P. Meroney acted as Secretaries.

The object of the meeting was forcibly and felicitously explained by F. E. Shober, Esq., who urged all the white men of the county to give their aid in maintaining the supremacy of their race and the purity of our institutions.

Appropriate resolutions were reported by W. M. Robbins, Esq., chairman of the committee, and unanimously adopted. The necessary committees to perfect the county organization were appointed and the meeting adjourned.

Cumberland.

The white men of the county of Cumberland met in Fayetteville on the 3d, to organize for the campaign.

D. McNeill, Esq., was chosen President of the meeting, and Messrs. J. C. Dobbin, J. H. Myrover and Capt. J. S. Evans were appointed secretaries.

Resolutions endorsing the principles and candidates of the white men of the State were unanimously adopted, and all the necessary steps were taken to make a thorough canvass of the county.

The meeting was addressed by Gen. A. D. McLean, of Harnett, and Messrs. J. C. Dobbin, French Strange, W. B. Wright and J. H. Myrover, in telling speeches, which were received with great favor.

Nominations.

The Republican Executive Committee have nominated the Hon. E. G. Reade and Capt. Thos. Settle, late C. S. A., for Judges of the Supreme Court, under the ordinance of the Convention increasing the number of Justices to five.

The Hon. E. J. Warren was nominated for Judge of the 7th Judicial District to fill the vacancy caused by the nomination of Capt. Settle as above.

Candidates in Lenoir.

The Conservative meeting held at Kinston, on Saturday last, nominated Jno. F. Wooten, Esq., for the Senate from the counties of Lenoir and Jones, and Jno. A. Parrott for the House of Representatives, (so-called,) for Lenoir.

The so-called mass meeting of the negro-worshippers at Newbern on the 11th inst., was a most ridiculous farce and failure. Just thirteen mean white men, ashamed of their color, and of whom, we may add, their color is equally ashamed, were present on that auspicious occasion.

Among the celebrities present were the Mayor and City Clerk, (appointees of Gen. Sickles,) E. R. Stanly, Confederate Salt Commissioner; Menninger, Yankee editor of the Republican, and negro candidate for Secretary of State; C. R. Thomas who signed the secession ordinance, whether with a steel pen or a goose quill we are not informed; Settle, who made the first war speech, and last, but not least, the X. P. G.—the Father of Secession in North Carolina—who signed the secession ordinance with a new gold pen; whose slogan during three years of the war, was "the last man, the last dollar, and death in the last ditch"—who, in a word,

——"nerved the han'
That pulled the trigger,
That killed the man
Who freed the nigger."

All these were there, and four or five hundred negroes besides, a negro brass-band included.

The X. P. G., Thomas and Settle harangued the crowd for four mortal hours in the most approved Radical style. Settle was doubtless the only speaker who was fully equal to the occasion, for the Journal of Commerce says he was "very drunk;" or to phrase it somewhat more classically, "sepultus in vino." Alas, in the language of the poet,

There had been too much time
For Settle to whiskey—
And not enough time
For whiskey to Settle.

Accident.

As Dr. Windell T. Robinson and wife (of Goldsboro, N. C.) were taking a drive on Monday evening last, the horse took fright, and dashed off at a fearful rate. Turning the corner near General Hink's headquarters, Mrs. Robinson was thrown violently from the buggy and was taken up insensible. It is feared that she is fatally injured.

The News says that the trade of Fayetteville is greatly improved under the advance in the price of cotton.

The dwelling of Wm. Cade, Esq., near Fayetteville, was destroyed by fire on Saturday last.

Isaiah Atkins, an old and respected citizen, residing near Ruffin's Depot, N. C., met a most horrible death last week. He had gone into the woods to obtain fuel, and becoming cold, it is supposed, made a fire to keep him warm while at work. It is thought that while warming, his clothing ignited and the fire was thereby communicated to the leaves of the wood. When found the woods were on fire around him and his body was burned to a crisp. He was about eighty years of age. We get the facts from the Danville Times.

The Smelfungus Mundungus alias the Konvenshun, has formally announced its intention to adjourn at 12 M., on Tuesday next.

RALEIGH, N. C.

W. A. HEARNE, JOHN W. DUNHAM,

The NORTH CAROLINIAN is Democratic in its principles. It is unalterably opposed to Negro Suffrage, Military rule, and Reconstruction upon the basis of Congressional enactment.

Its Editors believe and teach that this is a

WHITE MAN'S GOVERNMENT,

FRAMED BY THE BRAINS, AND

WON BY THE BLOOD OF WHITE MEN,

FOR THE BENEFIT OF WHITE MEN,

AND THAT IT SHOULD BE

CONTROLLED BY WHITE MEN ONLY.

As there is but ONE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION professing these sentiments and committed to their maintenance, the NORTH CAROLINIAN will steadily advocate the abandonment of all other party names and organizations, and yield a hearty co-operation with that organization—the NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN,

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:
Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.
I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well. Yours truly,
J. B. DANIEL.

CHRONIC LIVER COMPLAINT CURED.

This is to certify that I was cured of Chronic Liver Complaint by Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.
THOMAS THORN.

40 YEARS.
Deems' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pills, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.
There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.
They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.
Price:—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $18. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D. Address

LATEST NEWS TO THE FARMERS OF North Carolina.
Your attention is called to my large stock of Agricultural Implements, Iron Steel, &c., &c.
Corn and Cotton Planters, Corn Shellers, Hay, Shuck and Corn Stalk Cutters, Fan Mills, Plows, of every kind, Harrows and Cultivators, Spades, Shovels Forks, Brier Hooks, Iron Axles, Springs, Cart & Wagon Boxes, &c.
I call particular attention to Billup's Centreboard Cotton Scraper, and to Billup's Dixie Plow. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.
If Farmers are not satisfied, the money will be refunded.
